The Cleveland Museum of Art is celebrating its 50th anniversary with a year-long series of special events. Currently being presented is an exhibition of special purchases which represent some of the finest works of art from 1000 B.C. to the present. This painting by Goya is one of 160 objects in the exhibition which will be on group display through October 16. After that time each object will go on permanent display in the Museum galleries.
